MADCAAP

MadCAAP (Madison Countians Allied Against Poverty) is a nonprofit organization dedicated to sharing God's love in action. Through our food pantry, clothing closet, and educational programs, we provide vital resources to those in need in the Madison County area. Our mission is to empower the local community by offering support, education, and opportunities for a better life. Together, we are making a positive impact, one person at a time.

Executive Director: Karen Robison

Partnership Since: 2000
