CROSSROADS MINISTRIES

Crossroads Ministries is an organization for women coming out of incarceration. They struggle with addiction and more, needing education, life skills, and a safe place as they regain their self-worth. Crossroads Ministries is a place where broken women find restoration.

Founder: Vicki DeMoney

Location: Ridgeland, MS

Partnership Since: 2026

What We Do

- Provide a shelter for homeless women coming out of incarceration.
- Provide classes and small group therapy that will educate them in every area that is needed in their lives.
- Assist women in restoring family relationships and becoming strong women of faith.
- Show our ladies that they can have HOPE for their future and know that they are loved by their community and God.

Celebration Moments

- Four homes to provide shelter for homeless women coming out of incarceration.
- Classes to educate and enrich our ladies, such as Yoga for Beginners and Mindful Meditation.
- Crossroads Thrift Store – “Treasures” located in Canton, MS.
